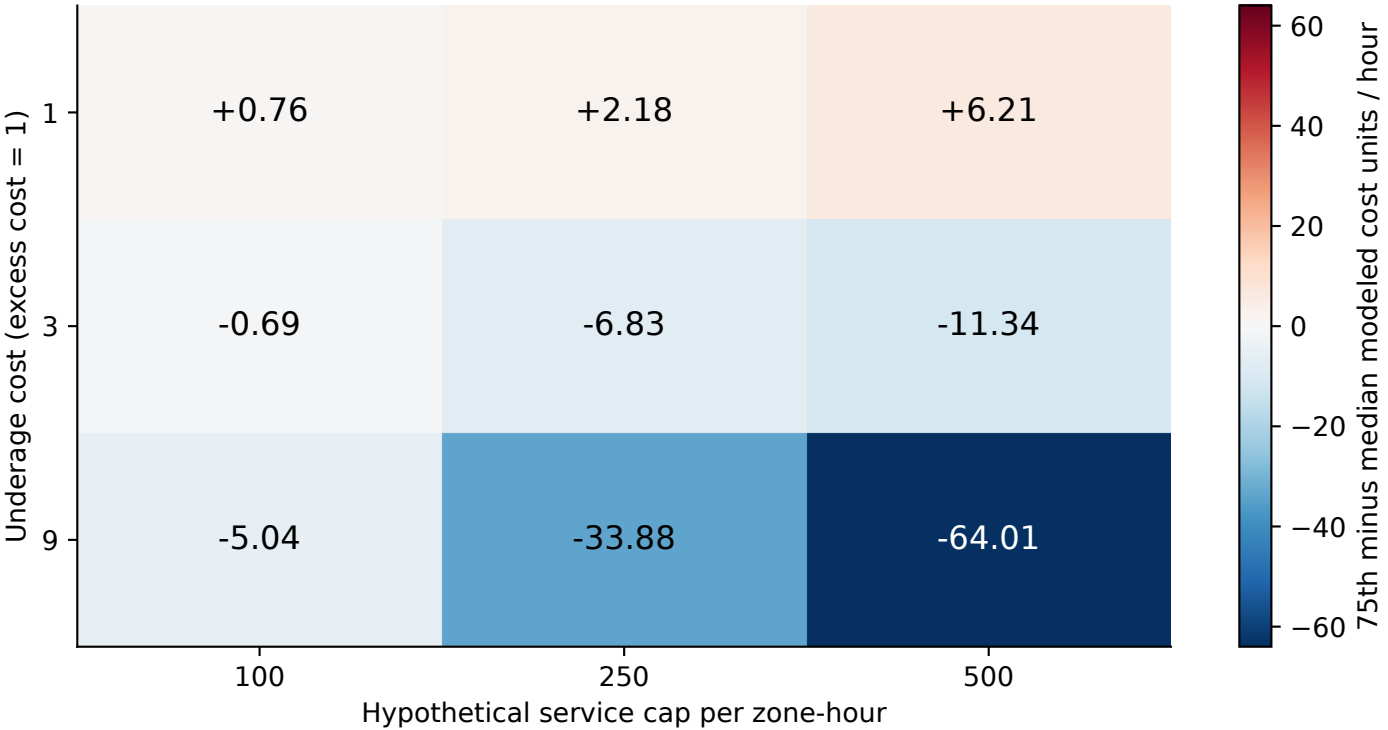
The cost assumptions change the policy comparison



Negative values favor the frozen 75th-percentile policy. Neither policy is reselected for these sensitivities.